NO. 133.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Tom Ochiltree was years ago a partner with his father in the law business, at Galveston, Texas. The old gentleman went away for a few days, and on returning found stretched across the office an immense sign board, on which was painted in large letters: "T. P. Ochiltree and father, Counsellors and Attorneys at Law."

While George Dublet, aged 10, was playing with his little brother, aged 2, upon one of the flats in Peabody's buildings, Westminster, England, about twenty-five feet from the ground, he picked the child up because he would not give him a toy that he wanted, and dropped him to the stone flags below. The child was fatally injured.

The French Academy has distributed its annual prizes for virtue. Four hundred dollars each were awarded to a woman in humble life for adopting deserted children; to an artisan for forty years' devotion in saving lives from fire; to a peasant, for preserving lives from drowning, and to a widow, for fifty years' services to the sick and needy.

The colored people of Little Rock are divided as to the needs of the soil. One congregation has been praying for rain, while the other asked for continued sunshine. The minister of the wet district sent the following note to the people of the dry: "You folks oughter be ashamed of yourselves. This cross cut prayin, is enough to get the Lord so bothered that he don't know what to do."

The Langtry-Jersey Waist.

The sensational result of the Mrs. Langtry reign in fashion is the waist evolved by her, and now known as the "Langtry Jersey." A fashion writer gives the following emotional description of the garment:

The Langtry-Jersey waist has appeared here, and is pronounced by all the ladies to be "too sweet for anything—perfectly divine." The garment is simply a ready-made dress-waist, without seams, buttons, or lappets. It is knitted like a silk glove. In fact, the whole waist is a sort of gigantic glove drawn over the bust instead of over the hands.

Its beauty and simplicity consists in its destroying all the old seams and wrinkles. It fits around the arm as a silk glove fits around the thumb. It preserves the outlines of the plump female form, and gives a voluptuous look that ruffles, wrinkles, and seams destroy.

A woman with a Jersey waist looks like a walking statue. Whitewash a beautiful woman in a Jersey waist, and you would have the Venus de Medici.

The garment is pulled on over the head like a gentleman's merino shirt—the whole in the top for the head being very small.

To The Masonic Fraternity.

The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago is the largest and most prosperous in the U. S. It now numbers nearly 8,000 members—Gives $4.50 to the heirs of deceased Masons—has paid out about $150,000 in six years, to widows and orphans and the annual cost of membership is but about one-fourth the expense of an ordinary insurance policy. There is no more certain, reliable or economical way of establishing an immediate estate, or providing for the future than is offered by the above institution. For further information and circulars apply or send to my office on the east side of Virginia street, south of the railroad, Reno, Nev. Jos. DeBalla, Agent for Reno and vicinity.

SOLID SOUTHERN SENTIMENT.

From the Richmond Dispatch (Dem.)

Lee and Stonewall Jackson represented in the late war in this country the cause that was upheld in the war of the Revolution by Washington and Hamilton.

THE FUTURE OF THE NEGROES.

From the Meridian (Miss.) Mercury (Dem.)

We would like to engrave a prophecy on stone to be read of generations in the future: "The negro in these States will be slave again or cease to be. His sole refuge from extinction will be in slavery to the white man."

WHAT SOUTHERN SUPREMACY MEANS.

Congressman, Backhouse, of Kentucky, in the House of Representatives, April 5, 1879.

For the first time in eighteen years the Democracy is back in power in both branches of Congress. We propose to celebrate her return to power by wiping from the Statute book those degrading restrictions on freemen (the election laws), and by striking away the shackles which partisan legislation has imposed. We do not intend to stop until we have stricken the last vestige of your war measures from the statute book—until we have an untrammelled election and an unsupervised ballot.

PAYMENT OF ALL CLAIMS PROMISED.

Speech of a Southerner heard by J. H. Randall at Elzer Hill, Alabama, July 21, 1880.

"The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, the best friend we ever had, is yet our President and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all the property you have lost through Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party, for a Solid South will now give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs."

WHAT THE SOUTH EXPECTS OF HANCOCK.

Robert Tombs to a Friend in Washington.

"As far as positive that Hancock will be elected as I am that there is a God in the heavens. You say that he is a Yankee. Well, I know that; and I know, too, that his sword has pierced the breast of many a gallant man in gray. But what are we to do? We cannot put in one of our own men this time, and have to take a Yankee. That being the case, let us take one who is less 'blue bellied' than the most of them. You may depend upon it, sir, that 'Yank' or no 'Yank,' if elected, the old boys of the South will see that Hancock does the fair thing by them.

In other words, he will run the machine to suit them or they will run the thing themselves. They are not going to be played with any longer.

If you hear any man say that Hancock cannot carry all of the South, you may put him down for a fool."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Canadian advises respecting the Canadian Pacific Railroad state that two syndicates are offering for the the road; the Government to complete that now under contract; the new company to construct about two thousand miles, including 645 miles from Lake Nipissing to Thunder Bay; the company to work and maintain the entire road upon completion. It is stated that one offer is for $10,000 bonds per mile and fifty million acres of land. The road is to be built throughout from Lake Nipissing to Puget Sound at once, and that portion of the road already constructed is to be given to the company.

The Democratic State Convention of Massachusetts nominated the following ticket: For Governor, Charles P. Thompson; Lieutenant Governor, Alpha E. Thompson; Secretary, State, Michael F. Donahue; Treasurer, Francis J. Parker; Auditor,

Charles R. Field; Attorney General

P. A. Collins; Presidential Electors at Large, Josiah G. Abbott, of Boston, and Jonas H. French, of Gloucester. It was proposed in the Convention that General Butler be nominated by acclamation, but he declined.

Scrubber's for September contains an interesting account of a woman who lived eighteen years alone upon the island of San Nicolas, about eighty miles off the Southern California coast. When found and taken to Santa Barbara she was the only survivor of a native race described as nearly white, well formed, gentle and intelligent. The woman died in Santa Barbara in 1853. Everyone there knows the story.

Says the San Francisco Bulletin:

"Joseph H. Jo-seylin, who prefixes

"Dr." to his name, was arrested by police officers Bee and Bradford yesterday afternoon on a charge of having no certificate entitling him to use the above prefix.

The next thing they will be arresting all the captains and colonels whose claim to their titles rests only upon courtesy.

Few persons know the bicycle's capacity for speed. Appleyard rode 100 miles in seven hours over a common turnpike road, and Waller has accomplished 1,404 miles in six days.

But, after all, what exhilaration can there be in bicycle riding compared to that of a gallop over the hills on horseback?

Mrs. Clark, sentenced to five years' imprisonment for complicity in a murder, hanged herself with a towel in the Seattle jail. Female prisoners should never be intrusted with towels.

There is no knowing to what uses they may put them.

By the shore of Mono lake, near Bodie, was recently found the skeleton of a man. Blankets were lying close by, one of them bearing the initials T. S. The conjecture is that some poor prospector died there.

There is a pathos in the simple story.

A Virginia sportsman killed a pelican on the Truckee meadows and took the bird to the Comstock, where it is on exhibition. The Enterprise fairly gloats over the size of the sack under the bird's bill.

Mr. Vanderbilt consents to the continuance of Mand S. on the turf, and she will probably be entered against time at the forthcoming Chicago meeting.

It is related of a certain sagebrush editor, that he often gives a stolen article an original appearance by clipping it in two and reversing the order of the pieces.

Much of the best magazine writing of the day is done by women. Eight articles in the last number of Scrib- ner's are from feminine hands.

A writer in Scribner's for September says that the ink of the Declaration of Independence is slowly fading from the parchment on which it is written.

A toilet preparation is advertised to take the redness out of a woman's nose, but nothing has yet been invented to take the fire out of a woman's temper.

The New Jersey Democratic Convention nominated George C. Ludlow for Governor.

It is proposed to honor the President, it is high time that something were done about it.

How a Scotchman secures his Wife.

A workingman in Glasgow, whose wife is a confirmed and violent drunkard, has hit upon a novel device for pacifying her and protecting himself and his family. In the morning he passes a chain around her ankles as she lies in bed, and secures the chain to his daily work. On returning in the evening, he releases his captive and allows her to remain at liberty until morning, when he chains her up again.

The neighbors have seen fit to interfere and to have him arrested, but as his wife has acknowledged his persistent indulgence to her in the face of her slaving misconduct, the magistrate has dismissed him after admonishing him.

What She Wears.

Mrs. Langtry's dress recently was of a fawn color, with trimmings of dark blue velvet. Another of her dresses is black, with orange velvet trimmings.
